RE: Final Response Access Request #21-371

The Department of Environment has completed its review of the records responsive to Access Request #21-371, and we are pleased to inform you that access is being provided in part to the enclosed 1 excel spreadsheet.

Some of the records you requested contain information that has been withheld from disclosure under the ATIPP Act. We have severed the excepted information so that we could disclose to you the remaining information in the records.

The severed information has been withheld from disclosure under the following sections:

- 70(1) The head of a responsive public body must not grant an applicant access to a third party's personal information held by the responsive public body if the head determines, in accordance with this section, that disclosure of the information would be an unreasonable invasion of the third party's privacy.
- 70(3)(a)(iii) Each of the following types of disclosure of a third party's personal information is considered to be an unreasonable invasion of the third party's privacy: (iii) the education or employment history of the third party,
- 70(5)(d)(i) the following factors that are considered to suggest that the disclosure would be an unreasonable invasion of a third party's privacy: the disclosure would unfairly expose the third party to financial or other harm,
- 72(1)(b)(i) Subject to subsection (2), the head of a responsive public body may deny an applicant access to information held by the responsive public body if the head determines that disclosure of the information could reasonably be expected to interfere with a law enforcement matter,

- 72(1)(b)(iii) Subject to subsection (2), the head of a responsive public body may deny an applicant access to information held by the responsive public body if the head determines that disclosure of the information could reasonably be expected to adversely affect the position or legal rights of the Government of Yukon or a public body in respect of an existing or anticipated proceeding to which the Government of Yukon or the public body is, or is expected to be, a party.

Details about each severance are provided in the enclosed comments of the excel file. The comments can be viewed by hovering over the respective sections of the ATIPP Act in the file. The detailed sections supporting the excising of particular information are available online at https://laws.yukon.ca/cms/images/LEGISLATION/PRINCIPAL/2018/2018-0009/2018-0009_1.pdf.

An electronic copy of the responsive records and summary of comments will be forwarded to you with this response by the ATIPP Office.

Under section 66 of the ATIPP Act, you may complain to Yukon's Information and Privacy Commissioner in respect of this response within 30 business days of receiving this notice by contacting:
