Final Response ATIPP Access Request 23-343

The Department of Community Services has searched all business units and has identified records responsive to Access Request 23-343 noted below:

Please provide copies of any notices of breach of contract for all contracts in the timeline specified. Timeframe: October 1, 2019 – October 19, 2023

Decision

The Head of the Department of Community Services has approved the following response to this request:

Access Granted in Part

Certain types of information have been withheld pursuant to the Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act.

The department has 36 pages of response documents

- There are parts of this document that were redacted to protect information under the ATIPP Act.
- These redactions were all under section 72(1)(b)(iv) of the ATIPP Act related to Law Enforcement and Proceedings.
- The information redacted was details around the companies, details within the Notice of Default, penalties and/or sanctions that could be imposed. We also redacted any information that could identify these companies or project they were part of. Release of this information at this time could result in harm to the reputation of the named company.

Final Costs

There is no charge to the applicant. There was an Estimate of Cost for this request of $870.00 and $435.00 has already been paid by the applicant. The department has recalculated it's initial Access Information Summary and the hours it took to complete is less than 5 hours. The business unit of finance, systems and administration created a spreadsheet so that all other units could review their records quicker when searching for relevant records. This allowed the department to complete the search in just under 5 hours total time and produced 36 pages of responsive documents. There needs to be a refund of the $435.00 deposit the applicant has paid already for this request.

Right to Complain

Pursuant to section 66 of the Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act you may contact Yukon's Information and Privacy Commissioner with a complaint in respect to this response. Section 66 states:

An applicant may, in respect of the head of a responsive public body's response to their access request under section 64, make a complaint to the commissioner by filing the complaint in accordance with section 90.

Should you wish to do so, please refer your written complaint within 30 business days to the Information and Privacy Commissioner at:
