Hi Jasmine,

Thanks for sharing. HPW has some concerns with the release as is. I'm looping in Richard and Ashley as they are both familiar with this matter. We will discuss and get back to you, and would appreciate delaying the release until tomorrow since we are already so late in the day.

Thanks again,

Nathan

Hi folks,
Just wanting to loop everyone in and make sure we all have eyes on this. Let me know if you have any concerns and I can forward on to the RCMP.

Thanks!

Yukon RCMP arrest male for firearm offences, execute search warrant

On June 20, 2024, Ross River RCMP received a report of several firearm related incidents that had occurred over the past several months at the Drury Creek highway camp. The investigation was conducted by Ross River RCMP with the assistance of the Yukon Crime Reduction Unit.

During the evening of Friday, June 28, 2024, officers in Yukon RCMP's Critical Incident Program, arrested a WITHHELD male for several firearm offences near the junction of the Takhini Hotsprings Road and North Klondike Highway.

Following the arrest, members of the Yukon Crime Reduction Unit and Major Crime Unit executed search warrants at a residence.

WITHHELD

of Whitehorse is charged with the following offences:

- Possess Loaded Prohibited Firearm without authorization x 2
- Pointing a Firearm
- Possess Prohibited Device (multiple counts)
- Unsafe Storage of a Loaded Handgun x 2
- Unauthorized Possession of a Non-Restricted Firearm (multiple counts)

WITHHELD appeared in Court on June 29, 2024 at 10:00 am where he was remanded into custody until the following day. He appeared on June 30, 2024 at 10:00 am and was released on a Release Order to abide by several conditions. WITHHELD next court appearance is scheduled for Wednesday, July 10, 2024 at 9:30 am.
