Legislative assembly to reconvene October 31

WHITEHORSE—Premier Darrell Pasloski announced today that the speaker will reconvene the Yukon Legislative Assembly on Thursday, October 31 at 1 p.m.

"After a long and very busy summer, our government will bring forward a number of key legislative bills during this sitting," Pasloski said. "After two years in office, we have fulfilled a number of the commitments we made to Yukoners, but there are several others on which we will focus going forward, including amendments to the territory's mining and highways legislation."

Motions will also be tabled that will include the online publication of ministerial expenses.
