Sport, culture and youth ambassador contingent heading to Vancouver

WHITEHORSE –The sport, culture and youth ambassador teams representing Yukon at the 2010 Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games gathered in Whitehorse for a send-off event.

"The strength of Yukon is in its people, and our team of sports, culture and youth participants will make us all proud in Vancouver," Tourism and Culture Minister Elaine Taylor said. "The team's energy and vitality exemplifies their love of Yukon. Attending Canada's Games on behalf of Yukon will give them opportunities to share their stories and talents with others, demonstrating Yukon as a great place to live, work, and invest."

"Sport and recreation, and the opportunities each provides, contribute enormously to the well-being of Yukoners," Community Services Minister Archie Lang said. "On behalf of all Yukoners, I hope they enjoy this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to represent Yukon."

The information briefing session brought together youth ambassadors, Arctic Sport and Dene Games athletes, and artists and performers involved in the cultural, sport and hospitality aspects of promoting Yukon at Canada's Games.

Yukon Cultural Olympiad at the Vancouver 2010 Olympic Winter Games

Vancouver 2010 Cultural Olympiad has been an ongoing celebration of the contemporary imagination. Beginning in 2008, a series of three multi-disciplinary festivals haven taken place and will culminate at the 2010 Games. This was the first time an Olympic Winter Games began hosting a Cultural Olympiad two years before the Games actually began.

See Yukon government news release for more information on the Cultural Olympiad:
