Yukon Supports Canadian Red Cross Asia Pacific Relief

WHITEHORSE – The Government of Yukon recently provided a $25,000 contribution to aid the Canadian Red Cross in its relief efforts in the Asia Pacific region.

“The disasters from Typhoon Ketsana in the Philippines and Vietnam, and the earthquake and tsunami on the Samoan Islands, combined with the earthquake off the west coast of Indonesia have exacted a terrible toll on the people of the Asia Pacific region,” Premier Dennis Fentie said. “Our hearts go out to the people in these regions who are suffering.”

The four disasters have taken the lives of hundreds of people and resulted in ongoing hardships. The Canadian Red Cross is mobilized and providing a key role in the disaster recoveries.

Yukon’s contribution supports the relief efforts of the Canadian Red Cross around the world and particularly those underway in the Asia Pacific region.

“Yukon is pleased to contribute financially to these international relief efforts,” Fentie added. “On behalf of all Yukoners, I wish to extend a heartfelt thank you to the Canadian Red Cross and other Canadian relief agencies for their continued dedication to helping people in need.”

Yukon also made donations to the Canadian Red Cross for Hurricane Katrina in 2005 and the Myanmar Cyclone in 2008.

Yukoners wishing to donate may contact the Canadian Red Cross Donation Inquiries office toll-free at 1-866-291-8979 or visit www.redcross.ca for more information on the relief efforts underway.
