A-7436	Environment	Refused	No	On May 15, Environment Yukon responded to ATIPP # A-7161. Represented on pages 0024 to 0027 there is a table entitled "Client feedback." 1. Requesting the metadata for the original record represented on pages 0024 to 0027 i.e. the date it was created, the time of day it was created and the identity of the author. To ensure the integrity of the ATIPP process am requesting that you retrieve the actual metadata from IT Services and not from the author. 2. Pages 0024 to 0027 suggest that the author met (or called/emailed; I'm referring to it as "met") with staff members from the Animal Health Unit, Conservation Officer Services Branch, Environmental Programs Branch and Policy, Planning & Aboriginal Relations (collectively the "Branches"). Requesting the author's a) calendar records related to these meetings, b) emails related to these meetings, c) phone and text messages related to these meetings and d) handwritten notes taken before, during and after these meetings. 3. I am asking that you share pages 0024 to 0027 with the Branches and ask all staff at the Branches for records related to a) the meetings and b) the content of page 0024. Staff at the Branches may not have been involved with an ATIPP request in the past. Please let staff know that records covers everything including emails, calendar entries, appointments, handwritten notes, text messages etc. 4. The author suggests that he/she met with Community Services.
