Final Response ATIPP Access Request 22-216

Decision

The Department of Justice has searched the Deputy Minister's office and the Policy and Communications branch and has located responsive records for Access Request #22-216. Our final response on the information is as follows:

Access Granted in Part

The Department of Justice has provided access to information relating to the request noted below:

We are requesting the most recently updated departmental ministerial issue briefing binders for the 2022 Spring Sitting of the Yukon Legislative Assembly, containing the most recent version of ministerial briefing notes.
Timeframe: April 18, 2022 - April 29, 2022

Information about the deliberations of Cabinet has not been released under section 67(3)(b) of the ATIPP Act.

Third party personal information has been withheld under section 70(1)(3)(a)(iii)(vi)(A)(d) of the Act. Disclosing this information would be an unreasonable invasion of a third party's privacy. Information includes employment and medical history, and a legal obligation owed to a public body. As well, where the small size of a population could identify third party personal information the number has also been withheld.

Section 73(a) has been used to remove information that is the subject of legal privilege.

Some advice and recommendations made to the department or a Minister have been redacted as per section 74(1)(a).

Unpublished budget and ongoing or future project cost information has been withheld as per section 75(1)(b)(i) since its publication could harm the financial interests of the government.

Details of negotiations with other governments and internal government decisions of other governments have been redacted as per section 76(1) since releasing the information would be detrimental to inter-government relations.

There will be no charge for this request.
