Final Response ATIPP Access Request 23-177

Decision

The Department of Justice has searched the Whitehorse Correctional Centre and has not identified any records responsive to Access Request 23-177. The final response on the information is as follows:

No Records Found

The Department of Justice has identified no information or records in respect to the request noted below:

I'd like to obtain the following documents: 1. All incident reports (or the equivalent if the documents have a different name) about instances of illegal detentions in the Yukon between January 2018 and today, July 21, 2023. Illegal detentions include instances of detainees who were supposed to be released on a certain date but remained detained for any reason including but not limited to administrative errors like sentence miscalculations or identification errors. 2. A machine-readable table (for example, in CSV format, please not in PDF) containing the following information for all reports in (1): the date of the illegal detention (beginning and end); the actual planned release date; the total duration of the illegal detention, the name, age, and gender of the detainee; the charges they faced; the institution where they were detained; the reason for this mistake and who was responsible; whether any compensation was paid to the person who was illegally detained and the amount of the compensation.

Timeframe: January 1, 2018 - July 20, 2023.

Final Costs

There is no charge to the applicant.

Right to Complain

Pursuant to section 66 of the Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act you may contact Yukon's Information and Privacy Commissioner with a complaint in respect to this response. Section 66 states:

An applicant may, in respect of the head of a responsive public body's response to their access request under section 64, make a complaint to the commissioner by filing the complaint in accordance with section 90.

Should you wish to do so, please refer your written complaint within 30 business days to the Information and Privacy Commissioner at:
